If you have questions about the above options or the school's recommendations, please contact the administrator.

I understand that I am responsible for returning this signed/dated form to the superintendent's office in the enclosed self-addressed envelope. I understand that failure to return the form does not release me from my obligations under the Compulsory Attendance Law (ORS 339.020). Furthermore, I understand that I am responsible for making the contact and enrolling the student in the selected program. I give my permission for student information to be shared between resident school and the alternative provider I have selected above.
